SAFETY AND HEALTH CONFERENCE 2017

Strengthening Safety and Health Practices at the Workplace

Businesses that acknowledge the link between safe and healthy work-places and business success enjoy a number of common success factors such as high quality working environment, greater productivity with fewer injuries, a source of increased innovation, improved quality and improved efficiencies of employees and processes, enhanced corporate reputation of the company in staff recruitment and retention, etc. Investment on OSH is therefore not just a statutory obligation but is equally a factor for business success.

In this regard, we are pleased to inform that the Federation of Malaysian Manufacturers Eastern Branch is organizing a two-day conference with the objectives:

- To encourage and promote better safety and health awareness and control in the workplace;
- To update the industry on OSHA legislations and regulations;
- To ensure that the current safety and health practices are beyond OSHA;
- Platform for interaction with DOSH, relevant authorities and Safety & Health practitioners

Invited speakers are from key Government agencies, Industry leaders, experienced OSH practitioners, employee representative and academicians as follows:

- Department of Occupational Safety and Health (DOSH) Pahang
- Jabatan Kesihatan Negeri (JKN) Pahang
- Jabatan Bomba dan Penyelamat Negeri Pahang
- Social Security Organisation (SOCO) Pahang
- Universiti Malaysia Pahang (UMP)
- National Institute of Occupational Safety & Health (NIOSH)

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- CEOs, Managing Directors,
- Safety & Health Managers, Specialists, Executives, Officers, Consultant.
- HR Managers, Executives, Practitioners.
- Safety & Health Committee Members and all involved in workplace safety
